

The Broad Ax

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

Will promulgate and at all times uphold the true principles of Democracy, but farmers, Catholics, Protestants, Knights of Labor, Infidels, Mormons, Republicans, Priests, or any one else can have their say, so long as their language is proper and responsibility is fixed.

THE BROAD AX is a newspaper whose platform is broad enough for all, ever claiming the editorial right to speak its own mind.

Local communications will have attention; write only on one side of the paper.

THERE may be as many Turks but there is not as many turkeys as there used to be.

JOHN G. CARLISLE wants to retire the greenbacks, the people want to retire him, and they will at the first opportunity.

It is said Grover will not accept a third term. Of course he won't; he could not get it from the Democrats, but he might accept his first term as a Republican. This talk about Cleveland and a third term gives us a tired feeling.

CLEVELAND and Carlisle turned Kentucky over to the tender mercies of the Republicans. Because they would not eat hay, they objected to the ox eating it. Rather than see free silver win, they would defeat their own party, and they gained their point by the same methods, and in the same way that the repeal of the Sherman law was accomplished. But wait until the people again get into the saddle, and the golden calf will be ground to powder and its worshipers smitten with consternation.

This is the way they feel over a shower of rain in sunny Kansas:

"A short time since the cow was sad; She scarce could raise her head, begad; Her hoofs were sore, her tail was limp, Her mane and bangs had lost their crimp, And miles she trudged from grass to drink, With scarcely strength enough to wink! The owner, too, looked blue and glum, And cursed the cattle business some, But since the rain the grass is tall, The cow can raise her head and bawl; Her hide is sleek, no bones protrude, She prances like a Kansas dude; Her tail is stiff, her eyes are bright, She snorts and dares the crowd to fight. Her owner, too, digs up the chink, And asks the boys to take a drink. God bless the gentle, gentle rain, It makes a man feel young again; He feels like tossing up his hat, And howling like a Democrat."

TO BUSINESS MEN.

We desire to call attention of the business men of the city, to our list of readers and supporters. If you want your business known by the public, put an advertisement in the BROAD AX, and it will benefit you. The class of people we have for patrons are of the very best in the community. A word to the wise is sufficient.

What we said last week about the condemned man, Thiede, was with reference to the neglect of the so-called orthodox people to bestow their Christian charity and sanctifying influence upon this human being. We have been informed that the Unitarian and Christian Science people have done their duty in this regard, but they are the only ones.

OPPOSITE THEATRE.

WHEN the wintry blasts howl around your poorly clad form, and you without a dollar in your pocket, find there is no coal in the coal house, no potatoes in the cellar, no flour in the barrel, and you have no employment, you can comfort yourself by sitting down in your cheerless home and reading one of McKinley's speeches on protection, or John Sherman's on sound money. You have got just what you have been voting for; you have voted protection to the "gold nabobs," and multiplied the millionaires, but neglected to protect yourself and family. If the fool-killer ever comes around your way, you had better crawl into a cave, as he would get you sure. Is it not about time you should open your eyes, and swear you will never vote for any protection that does not protect you and your family. If you like your situation, then keep on voting with the g. o. p. for protection, and gold, of which you never get either, nor never will.

David L. Lemons, the barber, and one of our race, read the article on "Lynch Law," and he says: "I approve every word of it. If the negroes or any one else would escape the mobs, let them obey the laws, become better citizens and try to be more intelligent, and there will be no fear of lynching."

THE BROAD AX WOULD LIKE TO SEE:

MORE good sidewalks in Salt Lake City.

CEMENT walks around the City and County building.

A BUILDING boom which would displace hundreds of old shacks, which are an eyesore and a disgrace to our beautiful city.

GOOD hard macadam roads from all parts of the new State, and all leading into Salt Lake. It would yield a big return to all.

THE inmates of the Utah penitentiary doing something more than playing "high five," and graduating in crime. Put them to breaking rock to improve the highways, if nothing else.

An appropriation from Congress to build a $500,000 government building in Salt Lake City. We can all be non-partisan on this question. The other states have all received their slices of pie, and Utah is now ready for her first piece.

FROM "EUREKA DEMOCRAT."

"Julius F. Taylor, editor and publisher of the BROAD AX of Salt Lake, was in town Wednesday soliciting patronage. He gave us a pleasant call and stated that the outlook for his paper was very promising."

We clip the above from the Eureka Democrat of Nov. 27, and we want to return our thanks to Mr. Diehl for favors shown us while visiting the beautiful city of Eureka.

A Salt Diver.

It appears the most gifted native diver—a Salt islander of the finest physique and in perfect training—cannot stay longer under water than about 2½ minutes. The greatest depth such divers are known to attain is 17½ fathoms.—Chambers' Journal.
